

Meet the Magician!

How to be an effective presenter!

Students will have the chance to peek into a magician's box of treasures!

Using magic, this workshop aims to develop students' public speaking and communication skills while strengthening their memory. Students will learn from Stuart Palm, professional magician from New York, the secrets behind some of his famous tricks, ultimately performing their own magic shows.

Woven into the lessons are public speaking games and activities that strengthen presentation, improvisation, cognitive and communication skills.

Where: Quarry Bay School

Who: Year 3-5

When: Every Wednesday, 3:00-4:00pm

Course Lead by Stuart Palm

Stuart Palm has extensive experience performing in theatrical functions and corporate events around the world. Stuart enjoys bringing magic to the classroom as he believes through performing magic tricks, children develop self-discipline, build confidence as well as skills in memory and observation.

Children of all ages are fascinated by magic. Stuart's professional expertise, coupled with his passion and experience in teaching, render him an exceptional teacher to children in New York and Hong Kong.
